TREASURE IN A SACRED LAKE

Search Being Made in a Famous Body of Water in Colombia.

Attempts to uncover a cast treasure supposed to be at the bottom of the sacred lake of Guatavita, in the republic of Colombia, have been in steady progress for some time, and it is thought that the bottom of the lake will be laid bare during the present month. In the course of the operations for draining Lake Kuatavita many curious objects in gold work and pottery have been found on the margin formerly covered by water and about the shores. These objects are not only of great antiquity, but they appear to be imitations of the products of a still earlier age.

Some of the vases and ornaments recovered are very like similar objects found in the tombs of the Incas in Peru and Ecuador; others have a suggestion of Egyptian craft or teaching. The finding of these empty vases, which are believed to have held treasures, leads the supposition that many treasure seekers have been there already, but what has been gotten can only have been by dredging.

There are good reasons for thinking that a rich store of emeralds may be found in the silt of the lake bottom. The Indians were sun worshipers, and the emerald was venerated as the emblem of the sun. As these gems were plentiful, they would in all probability be among the treasures which the natives are said to have thrown into the water to preserve them from the rapacious Spanish invaders.
What is not surely known is whether the Indians themselves ever recovered any of the sunken treasure when the country became more pacified. The estimate of a French writer that the treasure will amount to over 25,000,000 francs is, of course, incredible, but it is believed in Colombia that a large, if not the greater, portion must be still at the bottom of Lake Guatavita.

Souse of Pigs' Feet.

Put the desired number of well cleaned pigs' feet in a kettle, cover with boiling water and cook half an hour; remove the feet and plunge into cold water; drain and return to the kettle; cover them with half water and half vinegar, adding to one gallon of the liquor a tablespoonful of salt, two tablespoonfuls of sugar, one tablespoonful of whole peppers, one bay leaf, a teaspoonful of whole cloves, three blades of mace, a teaspoonful of thyme tied in a cloth and four large, fine cut onions; boil until the feet are very tender, take out and pack in stone jar; strain the liquor over the feet, and when cold cover tightly and keep in a cool, dry place; this should be made a day or two before using, but it will keep for days.

Suicide Prevented.

The startling announcement that a preventive of suicide had been discovered will interest many. A run-down system, or dependency invariably precedes suicide and something has been found that will prevent that condition which makes suicide likely. At the first thought of self-destruction take Electric Bitters. It being a great tonic and nerve will strengthen the nerves and build up the system. It's also a great Stomach, Liver and Kidney regulator. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Chas. Rogers, druggist.

The World's Fair Route.

Those anticipating an eastern trip, or a visit to the Louisiana Purchase exposition at St. Louis, cannot afford to overlook the advantages offered by the Missouri Pacific Railway, which, on account of its various routes and gateways, has been appropriately named "The World's Fair Route."

Passengers from the northwest take the Missouri Pacific trains from Denver or Pueblo, with the choice of either going direct through Kansas City, or via Wichita, Fort Scott and Pleasant Hill.
Two trains daily from Denver and Pueblo to St. Louis without change, carrying all classes of modern equipment, including electric lighted observation parlor cafe dining cars. Ten daily trains between Kansas City and St. Louis.
